Accession Policy

Items can be offered as loans of specific or indefinite duration if the donor would prefer to keep ownership of the item.

If the item is offered as a donation to Job Lane Museum the following criterion will apply:

- it is accurate to the period of one of the rooms
- it is a farm tool appropriate to the period 1700 - 1930/40
- it is connected to the Lane or Dutton family
- it originated in Bedford (especially in the relevant period)

Donated items must be in good condition or need only minor repair and are not too fragile or valuable to be displayed.

Value of the donated items will be provided by the donor and an Appraisal will be done by the Job Lane Farm Museum on all furniture and furnishings.

I give and transfer these materials to the Friends of the Job Lane House, Inc., together with any and all copyright and other rights, which I may have with respect to them, all as unrestricted gifts.

To the extent that I have the right to do so, I authorize the Friends of the Job Lane House, Inc. to microfilm and reproduce all these materials, to make them available to the public and otherwise dispose of them in such manner as the organization may deem appropriate, unless restrictions are specifically noted below:
